

First United Methodist Church
Staff Social Covenant
Updated Oct 30, 2019

We will move forward; acting in one accord, to serve God, our church, and each other in grace and love.

How We Will Treat Each Other

Acknowledging that each person is a child of God and wonderfully created, the staff will:

- Pray for, cooperate with, encourage, and strive to trust one another
- Hold each other accountable for our individual ministries' impact on the entire staff
- Provide opportunities for dialogue while considering and valuing the opinions of others
- Provide timely responses and decisions
- Encourage personal, professional, and spiritual growth
- Respect and honor each other's work, work environment, unique gifts, and personal time
- Welcome and assist new staff members
- Be patient
- Act with kindness and grace and presume best motives
- Listen attentively and be fully present during times of communication
- Be accountable to each other
- Strive for self-awareness: know oneself, including personal traits, constraints and feelings, and be mindful of one's impact on others
- Uphold confidentiality and avoid gossip
- Speak openly and honestly with one another when there is a difference of opinion

How We Will Handle Our Conflicts and Differences

We will commit to seeking resolution by:

- Praying for God's guidance
- Not allowing our personal emotions and differences of opinion to prohibit healthy communication
- Being honest, open, and empathetic to others when there is a difference of opinion
- Speaking in a timely manner directly to the other person with kindness and grace at a mutually agreed-upon time and setting
- Seeking and offering forgiveness to bridge the relationship
- Recognizing and taking responsibility for our own actions
- Seeking the counsel of a mutually agreed-upon mediator if a conflict can't be resolved
